DRYS PREDICT FULL VICTORIES IN SIX STATES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31—Reports from workers today led headquarters of the Anti-saloon League to revise their predictions. They now claim Colorado will go dry by 30,000. They also predict dry victories in Arizona, Washington and Oregon, and are hopeful of carrying California and Ohio, where it is predicted the vote will be close. Betting odds are quoted as favoring the drys.

STATE'S BANK GROWTH BIG FOR 1914

Increase of $39,404,358.28 in Assets Shown in Report for Current Fiscal Year

LOANS AND DISCOUNTS TOTAL OF $465,417,351.17

Four Hundred and Thirty-Six Institutions Under Control of Department

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—State Superintendent of Banks Williams submitted to Governor Johnson today the annual report of his department for the fiscal year ending June 30 last.

The report showed the combined assets of the state banks at that date to be $745,221,700.08, an increase of $39,404,358.28 for the previous year. Loans and discounts for the year were $465,417,351.17, an increase of $7,019,418.86. Individual deposits were $575,557,512.10, an increase of $13,635,817.74. Capital invested was $62,193,516.66; surplus in addition to capital, $28,498,883.23, an increase of $703,307.51. Nineteen new state banks and 417 state banks are under the jurisdiction of the department with 77 branches. "During the fiscal year," the report said, "those banks under the jurisdiction of this department enjoyed prosperity. The state banks of California are entitled to the fullest confidence of the people of the state. They are managed by conscientious and capable officers and directors. Increased deposits and resources and greater credit conditions demonstrate a healthy growth of business. As reflected in the banks, the people of California are prosperous in all departments of productive energy.

"It should be a matter of congratulation that all the state banks of California were successful during the fiscal year when there was an unquestioned depression in business, and a financial strain imposed primarily by the European war. Capital was active, industry was widespread and enterprise successful."

RETURN TO PARIS NOV. 20 PARIS, Oct. 31.—Unless the allies meet unexpected reverses, the seat of the French government will be transferred from Bordeaux to Paris on Nov. 20, it was stated today on official but reliable authority. General Gallien's aides predicted that the Germans will be forced from France before that date.

NEW CONSTRUCTION COMPANY ORGANIZED

A new construction company, to be known as the Orange County Construction Company is being organized here. At the head of the firm will be J. Y. Parker, of the Long Beach Brick Company, which firm built the Orange grade school. The new firm will burn its own brick and use them in the construction of buildings contracted for. A number of local men are interested in the project. The majority of the stock has been subscribed for.

Dr. Pearl B. Magill, Osteopath, rooms 1 and 2, Rowley building, 856W.

Vote Your Ballot Completely

Voters will find that most of the county officers in this county have no opposition. They won their fight at the primaries and their names are the only ones going on the ballot for those several offices. It is wise, however, to stamp those names. If most of the voters skip them, opportunity is given for some quiet and well organized "write-in" work that might defeat a candidate who is clearly the choice of the people of the county.

Of course, nothing of that sort may be attempted; but it is wise to head it off by stamping the names of the candidates who won out in the primaries. The people selected them, and they are entitled to their final election on November 3.

Betting in San Francisco Now 2 to 1 on Johnson

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The election of Governor Hiram W. Johnson is about the most certain thing that has appeared on the stage of politics in many years, in the opinion of the political experts in this part of the state who have been laying their straws in the wind and bending their ears to the public pulse.

This is not the sifting of sentiment in political camps. A political headquarters is the poorest place in the world to learn how an election is going. Every candidate, and usually every man in close touch with him, is confident of winning. Enthusiasm runs riot and carries men's minds off their true balance.

Cool-headed men do not take their political forecast from political managers or from the columns of partisan newspapers. They get it on the streets, in the restaurants, hotels, clubs, and the general gathering places of the whole people.

And here in San Francisco and the region round about, among those who are for Governor Johnson and among those who are against him there is only one opinion—Governor Johnson will win.

Betting Sure Sign In political campaigns there is one sign that tells the tale when all others are given a discount. It is the way men are betting their money.

A few weeks ago the betting in Tom Corbett's, where the official odds are fixed for the city, the odds were 10 to 9 that Johnson would win. At that time it was regarded as something of a fight, with Johnson a little in the lead.

Two weeks ago the tide set unmistakably toward Johnson. No one knows where it began or just exactly when. But it started, and it has been swelling at a tremendous pace ever since. It is sweeping the state. It now looks as though nothing could stop it.

And the Johnson tide has been reflected in the betting. It dropped from 10 to 9 to 10 to 8. Then the price broke again and three days ago Johnson was 10 to 7. The following day it dropped another point. Johnson was 10 to 6.

Johnson Landslide Predicted But the flood of Johnson money kept pouring in. The Fredericks bettors began to get their confidential reports from all sections and they began to run to cover. Their money suddenly gave out. Yesterday the odds were posted at 2 to 1 on Johnson and Corbett's reported that they had barrels of money on Johnson and not a dollar of Fredericks' money in sight.

Johnson bettors are now wagering that Fredericks will be beaten in Los Angeles, his home county. They are betting even money that he will win the state by 35,000 and even money that he carries San Francisco alone by 15,000. On every hand there is talk of a Johnson landslide.

Betting men rarely go wrong on elections. They are not like horse races or boxing matches, where so much can be concealed and so many accidents or upsets enter in. Predicting an election has been reduced to a cold science.

WHEN "PIGS IS PIGS" UP TO COMMERCE BODY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—"Pigs is Pigs," the comic tale recently popular, was vividly before the Interstate Commerce Commission and representatives of express companies when the commission today opened hearings on new rules proposed, regulating packing and shipping of a widely miscellaneous list of merchandise.

How to ship guinea pigs was one of the questions before the commission. Hasty transportation of the animals is an imperative rule of the express companies. Other questions involved in the hearings were: Maximum weight limit for shipments of mice; standardizing value of "possums"; how to pack duck eggs; protection of live crabs in shipment and treatment of shrimps (edible variety). Regulations for shipping moving picture films were also before the commission.

ELECTION DAY TO BE BIG DAY FOR SUFFRAGISTS

Seven States to Settle Right of Women to Exercise Ballot Privilege

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Suffragists and anti-suffragists here say that Tuesday's election will be the most important ever held from the standpoint of the ballot and women. The returns from sixteen states will be closely watched. Nine of these already permit women to vote. The interest there is largely in the result of the women's ballot, and the number in which they exercise the franchise.

Regarding this movement, Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, said today: "The individual stand taken by any senator or representative will not affect our attitude. We intend to make it plain that it is political suicide for any party to ignore our just demands or to oppose our cause. We expect to make it so conclusive in the nine states where women vote that no party hereafter will dare oppose us." Asked if the women will oppose President Wilson two years hence, Miss Paul replied, "Our fight will be won and forgotten by then." She said, "The best chances for suffrage victories lie in Ohio and Nebraska, with Nevada, South Dakota and Montana following in that order. The poorest chances are in Missouri and North Dakota."

At anti-suffrage headquarters Mrs. J. A. Mahon disputed that statement, saying that the "chance of suffrage winning in Ohio is practically nil. We beat them by 80,000 in 1912 and will do it again."

ESPEE APPEALS FROM RATE RAISE REFUSAL

Claims Railroad Commission is Acting in Violation of Federal Constitution

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Not satisfied with the recent decision of the state railroad commission refusing it permission to raise its rates for suburban travel, the Southern Pacific has requested a hearing on its application. The company bases its main contention on the allegation that the commission in refusing its request violated a federal and state constitution by confiscating property without due process of law.

How the War Nations of Europe Stand

FROM best available figures the following statement of the war strength of the various European nations is compiled. At a glance it shows the number of men actively in the field, the number of men available for duty if called upon. The "Voters' Memoranda" had appeared correctly in previous issues of the Register and it appears correctly today.

KIAO CHAU IS AGAIN UNDER ALLIES' FIRE

Most Desperate Attack Made Today on German Position, Japanese Aiding

FAST JAP VESSELS GO SCOUTING FOR EMDEN

Fleet Near Shore, Bombards Forts Incessantly, With Heavy Losses

TOKIO, Oct. 31.—The bombardment of Kaio Chau which was resumed today became violent within a few hours after its opening. English, Indian and Japanese troops assaulted the entire German position, with the Japanese fleet close ashore heavily bombarding the settlement. The attack was the fiercest since the Japanese siege began.

Assurance was given here that the fleetest Japanese ships are searching for the German cruiser Emden which is variously reported in several waters.

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—(By wireless via Sayville)—Distinct German successes on the west and a satisfactory outlook in the eastern zone are announced by the war office today. Emphasis is laid on the Kaiser's artillery making material progress in the attack on the forts at Tour and Verdun. The line operations is reported extended south of St. Mihiel. The repulse of all French attempts to retake lost ground is claimed. The early fall of Verdun is predicted.

The opening of naval activities by Turkey, the report says, "promises to divert Russian attention and forces from Poland, where the Czar has been able to concentrate numerically superior armies against the Germans and Austrians."

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Continued gains interspersed only by small losses for the allies were reported in the official communication from the Bordeaux war office today. The Germans made a vigorous attack on the Neuport-Dixmude battle line and also in the region of Ypres. It is admitted the allies lost some ground there, but it is also claimed they made important gains elsewhere. Important French gains are claimed in the region of Soissons, Souain and Chaulnes on the Aisne river, and in the Woivre districts.

Unofficial news today said the allies were everywhere successful at arms.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Prospective declarations of war by the allies against Turkey were foreshadowed by informal inquiries today as to whether the United States is willing to take charge of the French, Russian and English embassies at Constantinople. When the inquiry is formally presented affirmative reply will be made.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Unofficial reports continue tonight that the allies are winning an extensive victory at Frabco, on the Belgian frontier and that the Germans have begun a retreating movement. The Bordeaux war office remained silent to the subject.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 31.—Steady fighting is reported from German sources to be in progress along the battle front from East Prussia, through Russian Poland to the Carpathians. It is believed the Germans are re-disposing their forces for a fresh movement against Warsaw.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A Sydney dispatch to the Post says the German cruiser Scharnhorst of Gneisenau, which escaped from Kiao Chau before the Japanese blockade had been captured in Australian waters with fuel exhausted. The report is unconfirmed.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Russians attacked a Turkish squadron in the Black Sea, sinking a mine-layer and one destroyer, besides capturing one collier, according to a Rome dispatch received today by the Star. It is added that the Turks are bombarding Sebastopol.

GLENN MARTIN'S FEATS

Climbs 4170 feet in 10 minutes.
Flies 5 hours 15 minutes.
Carries weight load of 2300 lbs.
Crosses Palomar mountains and ocean.
Drives machine through a heavy rainstorm.
Gets no prize money.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 31.—In two of the greatest and most spectacular flights probably ever made by any aviator, Glenn Martin broke the United States army quick-climb altitude record and then flew for 5 hours and 15 minutes over San Diego county, into Lower California and over the ocean, carrying a total weight of 2300 pounds.

During his wonderful cross-country flight Martin passed over the Palomar mountains, and for five minutes, when about sixty miles southeast of San Diego, drove his powerful war aeroplane through a driving rainstorm.

This flight, according to the official records, eclipses anything of the kind in the history of American aviation. Martin, accompanied by Mechanician Harry Boore, ascended from the army aerodrome at 7:10 in the morning. He carried in addition to 4500 lbs. of fuel, nearly six hours' supply.

He twice circled over the city, flying at an altitude of 4500 feet. The second time he disappeared in a mass of clouds to the southwest, watched by thousands.

In smashing the quick-climb record, Martin, accompanied by a passenger and carrying 450 pounds of sand, thirty-two gallons of gasoline and three gallons of lubricating oil, ascended 4170 feet in ten minutes, or 170 feet higher than required by the War Department specifications. Martin's plane, equipped with a 120-horsepower motor, is the only entrant in the War Department's tests to meet the stiff requirements. Owing to the withdrawal of the prize money, Martin will get nothing for the superb showing he made.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

"Ike" Mansur, property manager, with the aid of Professor Nord's class in electricity, has installed electric lights in the boys' "shack." The football boys have had to dress in the dark heretofore as they do not finish their afternoon practice until after it is quite dark.

It having been decided by the County League officials that basketball is too strenuous a game for girls and the game stopped accordingly as an interschool pastime, the high school girls have started practice for the league games. The Senior team is composed of many last year's stars and should make a strong bid for the championship.

It is still too early to make any predictions on tennis, but every night the courts are occupied, which shows that interest in this sport will run high in the spring. The faculty gets a great deal of fun out of the game and many exciting battles with the racket are pulled off by them. At times a match will get close and the racket wielders will play until sundown to decide the contest.

The beginners' classes in agriculture have been busy clearing off the plot of ground devoted to experimental gardening. The soil will soon be plowed and harrowed and then the boys will get a real taste of farming.

The eighth period study classes were dismissed Wednesday on account of the extreme heat.

The intermediate football team has had hard luck in getting started this year. They have been unable to get a regular coach, but some of the former intermediate "stars" have offered their services and are now rapidly rounding the team into shape.

THE DRUGLESS PRACTICE ACT

Argument in Defense of Amendment No. 46 on Ballot to Be Voted on Tuesday, November 3

From time immemorial there has been a warfare waged against every struggling science. Mankind has not been liberal toward the development of any new theory, or developing science. Every feature of the progress of man has been marked by opposition and ridicule, and I am not sure but that of all the sciences known to man, the science of medicine has had the stormiest course.

Many remember the persecution of the Homeopaths by the Allopaths; the persecution of the Osteopaths by the Allopaths and the Homeopaths; the persecution of all other drugless methods by the Allopaths, the Homeopaths and the Osteopaths.

Now along comes the drugless practice act for its full share of abuse and ridicule. I want to say in contradiction of what is appearing in the local papers of the last few days, the following, with my name signed in full, which the opposition is not doing. I affirm that it is a crime to permit the present unconstitutional state medical law to continue unamended. The drugless practice act is the legitimate result of the hundreds of cures performed by drugless physicians of cases which had been diagnosed and treated unsuccessfully by licensed physicians, and amendment 46 will be voted YES by all honest voters who know the truth regarding it.

Perhaps this party does not know that physicians of all schools which have gained legal recognition in the past, who have previously occupied the field of honorable practice for a reasonable time, have been granted licenses without examination. Perhaps he does know it, but prefers to conceal it from an unsuspecting public, in order to excite discrimination against the drugless physicians in behalf of the interests of the "regular" medical profession. The moral and ethical codes of the drugless physicians and the lives they lead will compare favorably with those of the representatives of any of the older schools.

The drugless standard of examination is fully equal to that of the regular school when the latter was first admitted to the field of legal practice. Many of the regular physicians now practicing in California have had much less than two years' special medical training before they were licensed.

The fact that drugless physicians are curing patients contrary to the unconstitutional state medical law proves that the people want and should have them. The opposition to Amendment No. 46 is an attack made by the votaries of the "regular" medical profession.

Section 20a of the drugless practice act provides that the words "drugless physician" in connection with "Dr." or "Doctor" must be used by drugless physicians on their signs, cards, etc., thereby clearly distinguishing them from drug doctors and surgeons.

do so with the assurance of a square deal.

A drugless physicians' examining board, there, becomes a necessity under prevalent conditions, which provides representatives of the different drugless methods.

The osteopaths who are opposing the drugless practice act would evidently enjoy a monopoly of the drugless field, but since the drugless act is far too broad for any single school to cover, they are doomed to disappointment. The common laws provided for malpractice, negligence, etc., will apply under the drugless practice act to all practitioners equally, and the signing of birth and death certificates cannot be justly confined to the practitioners of one school or set of schools to the exclusion of others.

The drugless Practice Act No. 46, to be voted on November 3d, should be carried for the following reasons:

1. It provides suitable examination and licensing of capable drugless physicians who previously have been compelled to practice under the protection of the Constitution of the United States, but contrary to the present class legislated state medical law, which No. 46 will properly amend.

2. It will improve the standard of drugless practitioners, morally, ethically and professionally.

3. It requires satisfactory testimonials of good moral character and appropriate educational qualifications.

4. It does not grant drugless doctors the right to practice major surgery, but protects them from the persecutions of the "regular" medical profession.

HARRIS BROTHERS TO DEVOTE TIME TO REAL ESTATE

Well Known Abstract Man, and Pioneer of County, Form
Partnership for Real Estate Business

W. Frank Harris and J. Wiley Harris, well known pioneers of this county, and for many years associated in business in the Guaranty Title and Abstract Company, are again to be partners, this time in the real estate business.

Since retiring from the abstract and title business here, J. Wiley Harris accepted a lucrative position with the Title Guaranty and Trust Company of Los Angeles and when he tendered his resignation to the company was told that he could have his position at any time, so valuable are his services considered.

The reason for the resignation is that W. Frank Harris' business in the real estate line here has grown so big that he needs help and he has prevailed upon his brother to enter into partnership with him, the new firm to be Harris Bros.

The firm will continue business at the same office as now occupied by Frank Harris at 504 North Main street, and will no doubt be one of the strongest in the city as both members are life-long residents of this section and need no introduction to the people.

J. Wiley Harris has been making trips backwards and forwards to Los Angeles, but had intended to move to the city after election. The many friends of himself and wife will be glad to know that the move will not now be necessary.—Advertisement.

Mrs. Francis N. Noel, one of the best known Socialists in the city, will be one of the speakers. Mrs. Shelly Tolhurst will be another. Congressman Charles W. Bell and Congressman William D. Stephens will speak briefly.

Information has been received at headquarters of parties of supporters being formed in nearly all the cities in Southern California to attend the rally, and a tremendous crowd is expected.

Among the eleven-hour campaign stories that are being circulated by those who are opposing Governor Johnson is one in which the governor is accused of pardoning and paroling a number of men sentenced to the penitentiary for statutory offenses. A list of the men so pardoned or paroled is appended.

As a matter of fact in practically every one of the cases mentioned the men were released in 1912 or 1913, when a majority of the state board of prison directors was composed of Warren Porter, Tiery L. Ford and Charles Sontag, all hold-over appointees of Governor Gillet. It is only in the last two months that a majority of the board has been composed of appointees of Governor Johnson.

This board has entire charge of the paroling of prisoners and it is on their advice in practically every case that the governor exercises the pardoning power. If a wrong was committed in the instances mentioned it was due fully as much, if not more, to the personnel of the old regime.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat, Also Take
Glass of Salts Before
Eating Breakfast

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person, shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from back-ache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble. Advertisement.

Mr. A. A. MILLS,
Anaheim, Cal.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your favor of recent date, in which you state that you "would like to inquire if Sheriff Ruddock has proven an efficient and capable officer in connection with the criminal business of the county," and in which you ask three questions as follows, to-wit:

First: "Has he co-operated with your office in a practical and efficient manner in detecting and running down those charged with crimes?"

Second: "After criminals have been apprehended, has his office handled them in an efficient manner and held them until released by due process of law?"

Third: "Has his office been alert, active and efficient in detecting and apprehending 'blind piggers'?"

Replying to and answering each of the above questions, will state that I answer each of the same in the affirmative.

Trusting that the same is a satisfactory answer to your inquiry, I am,

Yours very truly,
L. A. WEST, District Attorney.

(Authorized Political Publicity.)

A Deserved Compliment

What is it that every thinking citizen of the county desires to have in the man who is to fill the responsible position of Superior Judge?

1. Broad-mindedness, most assuredly.
2. A conscientious performance of his duty, regardless of personal prejudice.
3. A liberal education, with an especial knowledge of law.
4. An experience, which always makes an able man more efficient.
5. And, above all, a fair, broad-minded, non-partisan look at every side of any question.

These are the proven and vouched for characteristics of Judge Z. B. West, and are acknowledged by lawyers and citizens who have come into his courts.

H. E. SMITH.

VOTE FOR

Lieut. Governor
For Governor and

NOTHING TO DENY

Anti-Johnson newspapers are attempting to make political capital out of an alleged alliance in Orange county between the Drys and the Johnson supporters.

If there be any such alliance it is perfectly natural and proper and entirely involuntary. Probably ninety per cent of the voters of progressive tendencies in this county are Drys, and at least a large majority of the Drys are men and women of progressive tendencies. Naturally, then, the Dry leaders are Johnson supporters and the Johnson leaders are Drys. And it follows, naturally and properly, that anything the Dry leaders could do (without injury to the Dry cause) to further Gov. Johnson's interests would be done; and anything the Johnson leaders could do (without injuring the Johnson cause) to further the interests of the Drys would be done. Certainly anything that either side or both sides could do to further both the Johnson interests and the Dry interests would be done.

It is improbable that the Dry leaders and the Johnson leaders have consciously and officially co-operated in an organized way, but if they have done so it is inconceivable that either side would deny it, or be ashamed of it, or afraid of the consequences. The Dry Johnson men are not the kind that would deny the Dry cause, or neglect it, for fear of losing a few wet Johnson votes; nor are the Johnson Drys the kind that would deny or neglect the Johnson cause for fear of losing a few Dry Frederick votes.

The foregoing editorial was written for Thursday's Register, but was crowded out. Thursday's Blade contained statements from leading Drys and Progressives on the subject of the alleged combine that seemed to serve every purpose of the Register's editorial, so it was decided not to publish it at all.

But yesterday's Blade contained a reiteration of the charge of improper relations between the Drys and the Johnson supporters, which makes it necessary to state some facts.

In yesterday's Blade appeared the following:

Now about the "use" of the "Dry" campaign fund for Johnson. Practically every cent of the "Dry" fund devoted to newspaper work in Santa Ana has been expended in the Register, the Progressive paper. There must be a reason for this. It is not because The Blade, for instance, is not legitimately entitled to a large share of this business, because it is generally known where this paper stands on the question, and furthermore it is known that The Blade has refused large amounts of "wet" advertising. The real reason why this patronage has not been extended to The Blade is BECAUSE THE BLADE IS SUPPORTING FREDERICKS; and this being the case, who is controlling the "Dry" fund? Now let us see as to the "use" of this money. The "Dry" people patronize the Register, and the Progressives take advantage of the increased circulation thus afforded by filling the paper up with Johnson literature, and adding to it from their own finances. If that isn't using the "Dry" fund, what do you call it?

The Blade probably did not mean to intimate by this statement that the Register is being paid for its editorial support of the Johnson-Eshleman candidacy, but the statement is open to such construction.

Not only has the Register never received one penny of financial support from either state or county Progressive committee, or from any Progressive candidate; but it has contributed in cash to the funds of both state and county committees and to the fund of the Santa Ana Johnson and Eshleman Club. The county committee and the club have never had any campaign fund; but when any expense was incurred a few people, always including the publisher of the Register, have chipped in and paid it.

Will the Electors of Other Parties Vote for Johnson?

(Answer by C. E. Utt, Prohibitionist, the most extensive fruit grower and largest developer of citrus fruit properties in Orange County.)

Tustin, Calif., Oct. 27, 1914.

Dear Sir:—You ask why I shall vote for Johnson and Eshleman.

I was born in this state, and any poor words of mine fail to express the unreasoning love I bear this glorious land of California. I never gave Mr. Johnson any credit until his administration pledges began to be fulfilled,—a thing practically unheard of before in California.

The work of the Railroad Commission, (the first that body had done in thirty years) affects the pocketbook of every citizen of this state. The reductions in transportation charges, and of gas, power, and telephone rates, make a saving to the consumer aggregating millions of dollars. Is there any wonder that "special interests" wish to regain ownership of this commission, and through a venal press, are carrying on an amazing campaign of abuse, misrepresentation, and evasion to that end?

Every farmer, business man, and laborer, laying aside political shibboleths and prejudices, should unite in continuing in power the present efficient administration. I have faith in the intelligence and patriotism of the people of California to believe that thousands of Democrats, Republicans, Prohibitionists, and Socialists will seize the opportunity to continue in power an administration that has been so faithful to its pledges and duties.

Very respectfully,

C. E. UTT.

to the Register were:

1. It would have been impractical and uneconomical to divide this service.
2. The Register was making a strong fight for the adoption of the Prohibition amendment and was, therefore, and naturally, the paper for the Drys to circulate.
3. The Register has by far the largest circulation of any paper in the county, and the Drys would, therefore, have to buy and circulate fewer extra copies of this paper than of any other to accomplish their purpose.
4. The Register had (long before there was any suggestion or thought of the contract for extra copies) given the Drys $100 for their campaign fund, and naturally they turned to the Register when they had any business to give to newspapers.

The part of the above quotation from the Blade to which the Register objects most strenuously is as follows:

The "Dry" people patronize the Register, and the Progressives take advantage of the increased circulation thus afforded by filling the paper up with Johnson literature, and adding to it from their own finances. If that isn't using the "Dry" fund, what do you call it?

The Blade probably did not mean to intimate by this statement that the Register is being paid for its editorial support of the Johnson-Eshleman candidacy, but the statement is open to such construction.

Not only has the Register never received one penny of financial support from either state or county Progressive committee, or from any Progressive candidate; but it has contributed in cash to the funds of both state and county committees and to the fund of the Santa Ana Johnson and Eshleman Club. The county committee and the club have never had any campaign fund; but when any expense was incurred a few people, always including the publisher of the Register, have chipped in and paid it.

SENATORIAL CANDIDATES AND THEIR PLATFORMS

Orange county audiences have listened with all serious respect to the addresses of three candidates for the exalted position of United States senator, and on November 3rd the people of this county will join with the people of the state in choosing between these three.

Knowland, the Reactionary
Joseph D. Knowland, the reactionary Republican nominee, told of his pride in being a member of the party of Abraham Lincoln. He did not offer a constructive policy, nor a plan whereby the permanent welfare of the people would be advanced. He spoke of dead issues, and voiced glittering generalities, and forgot or ignored those things in which the republic has the most serious concern. He did not even pretend to be progressive in his ideas and ideals, and in that respect at least he lived fully up to his record, as republished in this paper recently, from La Follette's Weekly. If that record was not such a tissue of political insincerity and evasion, one might be inclined to give Mr. Knowland credit for the sincerity indicated by his apparently frank acknowledgment of his reactionary tendency.

Phelan's Reflection Soup
There is an old photograph record of a monologue entitled Schultz Out West, in which Schultz tells about a very thin soup he got at a certain hotel. He called it reflection soup, and explained that it was made by standing a pot of boiling water in the sun and so placing a chicken that its shadow would be cast on the boiling water.

This Schultz story comes to mind whenever the senatorial candidacy of James D. Phelan is mentioned.

Mr. Phelan is in many respects a first class man, and might well aspire to the United States senate on his own merits if he would adopt a progressive platform, embodying principles of constructive statesmanship. But he persists in making his campaign almost solely in the reflected glory—both assumed and real—of President Wilson's administration.

A vote for Phelan is a vote of confidence in Wilson, says Mr. Phelan; believing in apparent sincerity that Californians should be tickled to death to pay more than ten per cent of the nation's war tax when we number only two per cent of the nation's people; that we should applaud his "peace program" in Mexico, when as a matter of fact the United States is virtually at war with that republic and has an armed force in possession of its chief seaport; that we should approve the president's repudiation of his own campaign promises and platform pledges with reference to canal tolls, when this reversal costs the California merchant marine its chance to grow and prosper; that we should be happy in the thought that the worst is yet to come—from the Wilson administration—in the line of tariff revision.

If it is our delight to honor Mr. Mr. Phelan we should vote for him. If it is our duty to kiss the hand that smites us, we should give President Wilson a vote of confidence. This being Mr. Phelan's "issue," it is all that can be considered with reference to his candidacy.

Heney, Constructive Statesman
Francis J. Heney has a platform that is comprehensive of all the issues that should appeal to true Americans who believe in the rights of the people to equal opportunity.

Mr. Heney believes in world-wide peace and international disarmament, not in general terms, but proposing a practical solution through the removal of private profits from the manufacture of war material. He believes in government ownership of the remaining energy producing resources of the United States, and in government ownership of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines. National suffrage for women is another policy that Mr. Heney is not afraid to voice. The extension of the postal bank system, a rural credit system for farmers, and the privilege of co-operation for the marketing of crops are other planks of his platform closely allied with the general interests of the public. Mr. Heney favors a tariff that will protect the farmer and the workman, to be arranged under a non-partisan and non-political commission.

In other respects Mr. Heney's frank statement of his political beliefs is in hearty accord with the rejuvenation of the principles of democracy upon which the republic was founded, but from which it has been wont to stray.

Take Your Choice

From these three, there can be but one choice. Mr. Knowland makes his race on a dead issue. Mr. Phelan is running on a false issue. Mr. Heney is before the people with a vital issue—an issue that concerns the progress and prosperity of the nation, and the advancement and happiness of its people.

WHY CALIFORNIA SHOULD VOTE DRY

By Hon. A. J. Wallace, Lieutenant Governor of California.

I want the liquor business of California entirely overthrown because it is an economic waste. It is a parasite.

I want the manufacture and sale of liquor prohibited because the traffic is a hindrance in the making of men.

I want the State to put its veto on the liquor business because the traffic is contrary to those principles that underlie the organization of a state.

Business may be intricate, but its first principles are simple. It is an exchange of commodities. It is buying and selling, and there must be advantage or gain in the barter. For continued commerce, the gain must extend to both parties to the transaction. If the resultant advantage of a business deal inures to the benefit of one party only, there is an economic defect. The buyer must benefit by his purchase as truly as the seller by his sale. In large matters the importing country is a gainer as truly as the exporting country. It is so with small matters. The buyer gets from the grocer flour, from the hardware man nails, from the lumber man lumber, and in each case buyer and seller are benefited. The same buyer goes to the saloon to get beer or wine or whisky. The dealer makes a profit on the goods sold. But here is a break in our business principles. The buyer makes no gain. He parts with his share of the barter, and gets nothing valuable in return. At every other counter there was gain on both sides, here the gain is on one side only. The transaction limps—it is false to business principles. It represents economic waste. It must cease.

The economic waste becomes a multiplied factor when the argument is extended to liquor's effect on the purchaser who consumes it.

The liquor traffic is a parasite. Any business blood that it has is sucked from the vigorous body of healthful business. It contributes nothing, but draws heavily. If traffic in lumber, dry-goods, groceries, and other legitimate business gave no more value than liquor does, and yet received as these lines of business do, and as liquor does, all business would collapse. The quid pro quo would be lacking. If a town or city prospers where traffic in liquor is allowed, its prosperity is less than it should be by just so much as liquor takes. It gives nothing, and what it takes is so much subtracted from the general gain. It is a parasite—a leech.

A state is brought into government being to protect and help its people. When a state authorizes the doing of those things that injure its people, it is traitorous. Because the liquor traffic hampers business and burdens commerce, it must be eliminated; because it invades the home harmfully, it must be eradicated; because it injures men in the making, it is a menace to citizenship and its disloyalty condemns it; and, because it is hideously bad and in no wise good, the state that exists to serve its citizens must, through its awakened voters, utterly prohibit it.

"It is one of the greatest things any state can do to adopt a prohibition law."—Charles M. Way, cashier, Farmers' State Bank, Blue Mound, Kansas.

ONE-MINUTE INTERVIEWS

What People Are Talking About

E. R. Mauzy: "Our Orange county Valencia growers are coming into their own as they are receiving $3.25 to $3.75 in New York for fruit in competition with Florida's at $1.80. This is a pretty good indication that the public is not going to buy green oranges even at half the money. Manager Knight of the Tustin Hills says that he will have Valencias to ship for the eastern Thanksgiving market this year, so well is the fruit holding."

Returns to Santa Ana

J. Wiley Harris has resigned his position with the Title Guarantee and Trust Company of Los Angeles and will return to Santa Ana to engage in the real estate business with his brother, Frank Harris, whose business has increased to a point where a larger force is demanded.

The present office of what will be known as the Harris Brothers real estate business is at 504 North Main, and the business will continue without interruption. The office is being newly furnished.

On receiving the resignation of J. Wiley Harris, the Los Angeles company expressed regret and assured Mr. Harris that the same position was open to him at any time he wished to return.

Halloween Party for Tots

A happier little man would be hard to find in the whole country side than was Master Clark Sackman, yesterday, when about a dozen of his little kindergarten friends came to his home on West Fourth street to help him enjoy a Halloween party.

After about an hour spent in playing the many games so dear to childhood, the children were called into the large dining room, which had been darkened, and a lot of grinning pumpkin-men greeted them.

Golden stars marked each place, where favors of smiling black cats and grinning pumpkin heads awaited each child. Large golden oranges cut like jack-o-lanterns were at each place and the great delight of the little people can be most easily imagined when they lifted the lids of the oranges and found them packed full of delicious ice-cream. Yellow baskets at each place were heaped high with assorted cakes. After the feast the "real party" began.

When good-bye time came, each basket was filled with bon-bons and a big rosy apple, and each small friend departed, having had the best time ever, leaving Master Clark a very tired, but very, very happy little man.

Mountmellick Club

The Mountmellick Club was entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. R. G. Freeman, who used Halloween symbols and yellow chrysanthemums in house decoration. The afternoon was spent pleasantly in fancy work, visiting and the enjoyment of dainty refreshments. A dozen members of the club were the guests of Mrs. Freeman. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. J. E. Kellogg on Orange avenue.

At Ebell Day Nursery

Another of those happy little birthday dinners with which Matron Jones of the Ebell Day Nursery delights the hearts of the children under her care, was given yesterday for Guy Tinnix, who attained his ninth birthday. Halloween decorations presented by Mrs. Schroeder made the table most attractive to the tots who gathered about it. A handsome birthday cake and all the joyous conceits of a birthday event pleased the children. The afternoon was spent in merry games.

PROGRESSIVE WHIST

Halloween Features Prevail in Delightful Afternoon Event at Briggs Home

Progressive whist was played yesterday afternoon when Mrs. George S. Briggs entertained at her North Broadway home. The house throughout was festive with green baskets of gorgeous innias in which mingled the bright tints suggestive of the Halloween motif that prevailed in all features of the entertainment. The small tables used for the delicious refreshments served by the hostess were spread with yellow cloths gay with black cats, witches and owls, and the orange ice was surmounted with spooky-looking black cats. The motif of yellow and brown generally prevailed throughout the house and table appointments.

Mrs. Briggs was assisted by Mrs. J. C. Metzgar, who stood at the stairway in receiving, and by Mrs. A. W. Rutan and Miss Marie Briggs in scoring and serving. High score and corresponding prize in the whist games were won by Mrs. Carl Stock, and the consolation souvenir went to Mrs. J. W. Bishop.

Mrs. Briggs' guests were Mrs. Samuel W. Nau, Addie Collins, Fred Parsons, Harl Kittle, Howard Turner, J. C. Metzgar, J. P. Baumgartner, E. B. Trago, W. L. Deimling, W. H. Spurgeon, Jr., W. A. Flood, John A. McFadden, P. C. Rowland, Chas. Riggs, J. D. Thomas, A. J. Padgham, Jabe Hill, Clyde Walker, J. H. Martin, L. J. Carden, Carl Stock, J. W. Bishop, Chas. Kelley, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Ed Parr and Mrs. George Parr of Long Beach; Mrs. Kellar Watson, Mrs. A. J. Klunk and Miss A. E. McMullen of Orange.

Sunshine Society Meets

The ladies of the Sunshine Society assembled yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Alice Patton, 1224 North Broadway, where they spent a pleasant afternoon in completing plans for the luncheon to be given at the home of Mrs. Ila Bishop, 1103 French street, on Wednesday, November 11.

The ladies were busy also with work for the bazaar which they will give at some date yet undecided upon. A fine attendance marked yesterday's meeting, and the hours together were greatly enjoyed by the ladies belonging to this society, the purpose of which is to make life brighter for others.

Juvenile Party

Miss Mildred Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Warner of 1417 North Main street entertained eleven of her little girl friends with a Halloween party last Friday evening from 5 to 8 o'clock.

The little guests were masked, and the rooms were decorated with corn stalks and jack o' lanterns. After refreshments had been served, the juvenile guests were taken for an auto ride and later to their respective homes, all declaring they had spent a most enjoyable evening.

Orange Halloween Party

The Misses Leona Miller and Palma Flint gave a Halloween party last evening to a few intimate friends at the G. E. Flint home, 323 North Glassell street, Orange. The house decorations were in orange and black, sunflowers, crepe paper, witches and black cats being used to carry out the color scheme.

A jack o' lantern in front of a shock of corn and a solemn white ghost greeted the guests at the front porch entrance.

The evening was spent in the enjoyment of merry Halloween games, ghost stories and other diversions, at the conclusion of which refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, doughnuts, orangeade, apples, nuts and candy were served. Those present were the Misses Rachel and Edna Stein, Margaret Beckman, Norma Rossman, Nor-Eastman, Esther Williams, Inez Erwin, Nita Walton, Leona Miller and Palma Flint.

Successful Convention

The Los Angeles district meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Union and southern branch of the Woman's Board of the Pacific, held here in the Congregational church Thursday was most successful. Mrs. Wm. Davies gave an interesting report on the Los Angeles Summer Institute, and the Missionary Quartet, Mesdames Nat Neff, C. F. Crose, F. C. Rowland, A. E. Chapman, then gave a fine selection. Mrs. M. P. Haines reported the work being done at Mt. Hermon and at Asilomar among the Indians. Mrs. Hitchcock of Pasadena spoke for the annual meeting W. B. M. P. giving the keynote of that meeting, "Christ for every life and in every life," and Mrs. T. E. Jones reported the one hundred and fifth annual meeting of the A. B. C. P. M. in the great automobile city of Detroit. Mrs. Henry Kingman's talk on "How to Organize and Conduct a Mission Study Class" elicited a lengthy discussion. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. E. C. Norton was most ably given and proved very gratifying to the assembly. The talk by Madame Day of Los Angeles was very instructive and entertaining.

After luncheon at which were seated more than one hundred and twenty ladies, the program was resumed. The organ solo by Mr. A. Revell was much appreciated. Mrs. W. H. Day told of her "Impressions of Missionaries Abroad," and Mrs. Blaisdell responded for Pomona College.

The auxiliary roll call brought forth many good responses. The Missionary Quartet favored the assemblage with another fine selection. Of the "Coming Events," Rev. R. B. Larkin gave a glowing description for Home Mission Week, the third week of Nov. Mrs. Abernathy of Claremont told of the November Missionary conferences to be held in the different cities. World's Congress of Missions to be held in San Francisco June 1-13, 1915, and Miss Barrett told of the Silver Anniversary next April to be celebrated in Pasadena. K. W. Bent and Mrs. C. M. Coman.

The noon luncheon was greatly enjoyed, the tables being beautifully decorated for the occasion by the ladies of the Amphion Circle. Covers were laid for 125 guests. Brown baskets and pretty vases were filled with white chrysanthemums. The dinner committee included Mrs. E. M. Nealey, Mrs. W. S. Rose, Mrs. C. S. Shaw, Mrs. F. L. Norton, Mrs. Lydia Robinson, Mrs. M. E. Clark.

W. R. C. is Grateful
The chicken dinner given by the W. R. C. was, to say the least, a complete success, patronized by the public and especially the business men of the city. A goodly sum was realized for the benefit sum. The Corps especially wish to thank Mr. Miles for his liberal donation of "Wedding Breakfast Coffee," used for the dinner, and to Mr. Schlesinger for his invitation to the Temple Theater, and Mrs. Roberts for her advertising the same and the courtesy of The Blade also, and each member that gave help and donations.

At the Horton Home

Mrs. Horton was hostess at a feast of ice cream and cake served in the dining room, where Halloween symbols were used in decorations of both room and table, and where lighted jack o' lanterns furnished the illumination. The place cards were of Halloween design.

Interested in Carnival Queen

The guests were given spoils with strings attached which they wound up till they found their plates at a wiener supper, cakes and tarts and bobbing for apples, winding up the feast. WIVES DEPART; JAPS SEEKING FOR DIVORCES

Barber and Raicher Take First Steps Toward Second Marriages

Seldom indeed do the Japanese get into the American divorce courts. That is why two divorce actions brought here are rather unusual. Nido Okabe wants legal freedom from Asano Okabe, and Shota Nagamatsu is asking the same kind of a decree against Yoshi Nagamatsu. Attorney M. A. Cain filed the complaints.

The plaintiff in each case is a man, though no one but a Jap could guess it from the names. Each man had the same tale of woe to tell to his attorney. Each man sent back to Japan for a wife. Each wife found another man she liked, and each wife ran away.

Take the case of Nido Okabe, who has a poolroom on Sycamore street. He met Asano when she got off the boat at Seattle, and married her. Arriving in Santa Ana, she got into the habit of making Nipponese goo-goo eyes at the Japanese barber whose shop was in the place. The barber goo-gooed back. It ended in an elopement about two months ago.

Shota Nagamatsu is a sugar-beet grower or a celery grower or some other kind of a grower on a ranch in the lowlands. It was several years ago that he journeyed to Seattle and took as his wife the woman to whom he had sent a ticket. She was with Shota a few weeks or months only when she discovered an affinity, and away she went. She is now in Tulare county.

Neither Nido nor Shota is ready to return to the land of cherry blossoms and kimono. Each man has a yearning for another wife, but it seems the immigration officers will not let them send to Japan for them while they are married. So they sought an attorney that they may break the American bonds that tie them to their Japanese wives.

SHOPLIFTING MEX IS CHASED; HE ESCAPES

A Mexican shoplifter was busy in the Nasatir furnishing goods store, 207 East Fourth street, this morning, securing a number of hats which he hid under his coat while S. Hurwitz, a salesman in the store, was engaged with a customer.

Two Mexicans entered the store at about 7:30 this morning. They asked to be shown some hats. Another customer entered hurriedly and purchased a collar of Hurwitz in the front part of the store, the Mexicans remaining in the back. Hurwitz kept his eye on the two Mexicans and noticed that one was buttoning up his coat as though hiding something. Disposing of his collar customer, Hurwitz hurried to the back, but as he (Hurwitz) was not absolutely positive that the Mexican had stolen anything he said nothing but continued to keep close watch on the man he suspected.

The man with the bulging coat went to the front door and opened it and made as though to throw his cigarette outside. Hurwitz was close on the Mexican's heels. No sooner was the Mexican outside the door than he broke into a run. Hurwitz gave chase, following the Mexican east on Fourth to Spurgeon; from Spurgeon into the alley back of the Horton-Spurgeon store and from the alley north on French to Fifth street. By that time the Mexican was a half block ahead of Hurwitz. The latter, fearing to leave the store unattended, hurried back and turned the other Mexican, who had been detained by the man who purchased the collars, over to the police.

Constable Jackson stated that both Mexicans have been in jail before on shoplifting charges.

THE BEST FOOD

Can Be Spoiled by Improper Cooking

This is particularly true of Oatmeal. It takes over two hours to cook Oatmeal as it should be cooked—a fact with which most housewives are familiar.

And so few housewives care to go to the trouble of cooking oatmeal that length of time. They don't have to. NOW. There is one Oatmeal that is cooked for more than two hours at the mill, before it is flaked. H-O is the ONLY Oatmeal that YOU need cook only 20 minutes.

A food scientist blends the Oats for H-O and only the finest white oats are used. Only those kinds are selected which contain the proper amount of body-building elements. The result—H-O is a perfectly "balanced" food for every member of the family.

Notice the rich color of H-O. It is golden brown—the result of a special H-O process. You will be delighted to see how H-O Oatmeal bulks up when cooked.

H-O Oatmeal is the most economical Oatmeal you can buy. The actual cost to you is less than one-half cent a dish. Sold in air-tight, moisture-proof packages. All good grocers.—Advertisement.

POLY WINS BY 7 TO 0 SCORE

The Santa Ana Polytechnic high school football team beat the Occidental freshman team at Los Angeles this morning by a 7 to 0 score. In the first quarter "Little Spud" Morrison covered the ball on a fumble for a touchdown and a kick by Burkett. There were no injuries. A fair-sized crowd witnessed the game. A delegation of rooters from Santa Ana was on hand.

SANTA ANA BOOK STORE CHANGES OWNERSHIP

A change in the ownership of the Santa Ana Book Store took place this week, the new owners being Henry Seeman, formerly of Sioux City, Iowa, and A. J. Gulick, who until recently was engaged in similar business at Santa Barbara.

Earl G. Chandler, who has been the manager of the store for the past year, has by his courteous treatment and fair business methods, made hosts of friends for the store as well as for himself and they will regret to learn that he is leaving. Mr. Chandler has accepted a position with Cunningham, Curtis & Welton, wholesale and retail book and stationery dealers of Los Angeles, with whom he was engaged for seven years before coming to Santa Ana. He will remain for short time with the new firm before assuming his position in Los Angeles.

Messrs. Seemann and Gulick are thorough business men and will doubtless keep the Santa Ana Book Store up to its present high standard.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Bird of Paradise"
Lenore Ulrich, who plays Luana in Oliver Morosco's production "The Bird of Paradise," which appears at the Grand Opera House next Monday, has probably played a greater number of and varied of heavy leading roles than any other actress of her years upon the English speaking stage, either at home or abroad.

Miss Ulrich has just made an exit from her nineteenth year, and in a maze of parts, embracing almost the entire category of drama in our language, one may select eighty-six roles of size, enacted by her in a space of twenty-six months—truly a record in itself.

Among these may be mentioned her leading woman's part in "The Fortune Hunter," "Get-Rich-Quick-Valentino," "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," "Twelfth Night," "The Return of Eve," "Over Night," "The Virginian," "Going Some," "The House Next Door," "The Deep Purple," "Seven Days," "The Chorus Lady," and "Cameo Kirby."

Salisbury's Fish and Game Pictures
Laboring for two years at the most heart-breaking tasks; overcoming obstacles almost insuperable; studying the habits of the wild birds and animals until they could think their thoughts; in this way have the Salisbury's Fish and Game Pictures been assembled. As they stand they constitute one of the finest and one of the most remarkable series of bird and animal pictures ever exhibited.

Each subject is carried through as nearly as possible from birth to the adult condition. For example, the trout is seen first as an egg and the life of the young fish is then followed through till it is liberated in the waters of the state.

The wild birds and mammals themselves are the actors. The intimacies of their home life are shown in a truly remarkable manner.

They will be at the Opera House for two nights and Saturday matinee commencing Oct. 30, night. They will be accompanied by an interesting explanatory lecture. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Matinee prices 10 and 20 cents.

"SEPTEMBER MORN" SWIM A SUCCESS

A large crowd of youngsters indulged in the "September Morn" swim which was given in the plunge of the Santa Ana Bathhouse Company this morning. It is the intention of the management to stage these swims about once a week from now on.

Cost of Flying Aeroplanes

It is estimated that the fuel and oil costs of an aeroplane of high power run into about five dollars per hour of flight. In England there are from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and fifty aeroplanes, and as each machine is expected to do about two hundred and fifty hours of flying annually, the significance of high fuel costs will begin to be appreciated. It will be measured by a fuel and oil bill of about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year at retail prices. Those who read the signs expect the rate of increase of air-craft to continue to one thousand aeroplanes, and many dozens of air-craft within a fuel and oil bill of $1,250,000. It has been further estimated that on the above supposition of development aeroplanes may be expected within two years to take one-sixth part of the fuel consumption of all the motor vehicles in Britain. Of the total consumption, estimated by Mr. Critchley at about one hundred million gallons a year, it seems that twenty million gallons are used by the omnibuses and taxicabs of London, while motor boats, motorcycles and sundry users take 10,000,000, so that on this basis the 100,000 gallons in England take 70,000,000 gallons.

SAY "MINCE PIE"

To Your Boy—
And See Him Smile

It's just about as natural for a boy to like Mince Pie as it is for a duck to swim. Not only boys, but girls, and grown-ups of both sexes. Can you imagine anything more delicious than Mince Pie "like mother used to make?"

But think of all the work and worry of making Mince Pies, when it was the custom for the housewife to mix her own Mince Meat! All that has been changed. Now the woman of the house orders ready-prepared "None Such Mince Meat" from her grocer, which when stewed a short time is all ready for the crust.

"None Such Mince Meat" complies with all food laws, both Federal and State. It is manufactured in a fine, big, sunlit, hygienic plant built expressly for the purpose, and the enormous sale of this well-known product, increasing year after year, must evidence the fact that the housewives of America have discovered that it is more satisfactory to buy this good Mince Meat than to bother with the home-made product.

"None Such Mince Meat" is made by Merrell-Soule Co., Syracuse, N. Y.; packed in sealed dust-proof packages lined with paraffine paper, and sold by good grocers everywhere.—Advertisement.

Has Not Been Partisan

Mr. Kettner's opponent is making frenzied appeals to partisan prejudice for support.

If Mr. Kettner had played the part of a bitter partisan at Washington the past two years, his opponent might have some ground for such appeal.

But William Kettner has not been a partisan congressman. When he received a letter from any citizen of the district he did not stop to inquire about the politics of the writer. Not at all. He answered the letter promptly, giving all the information at his command.

When asked to do anything for his district he did not stop to inquire about the politics of the constituent making the request, but went to work with all his might to do it.

It was because he did not play the role of a bitter partisan that he has been able to do things—not just a few little things but the many big things he has accomplished for his district even though a new member of congress.

In fact Mr. Kettner admits that he has not been a partisan for he says: "While I have not at all times followed my party, in my opinion I have always voted in the interest of the people."

And that is why Republicans, Progressives, Democrats, in fact voters of all parties can vote for Kettner this year without violating party principles.

Make No Mistake

Don't swap horses in the middle of the stream.

On the ground of faithful and efficient service to his constituents in Congress, William Kettner is entitled to your support for re-election.

He received almost the unanimous nomination from two parties of his district, and is making his appeal regardless of party affiliations.

His name will appear on the Democratic and Progressive ballots.

See that you put the X opposite his name.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Thickness and Lustre at Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so natural, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.—Advertisement.

BUENA PARK'S PROSPECTS OF THE VERY BEST

Live Boosters for the Section
Are Doing a Great Deal of Good

BUENA PARK, Oct. 31.—Buena Park is the community center of a rich district near the county line west of Fullerton. It is on the main line of the Southern Pacific to Los Angeles, while the Santa Fe is but a mile north of the store and other buildings of the village.

The community is traversed with one of the county's paved roads, so that communication by vehicle with near-by towns is excellent.

Recently there has been a good deal of interest in the development of oil in the Coyote Hills north and northeast of Buena Park. Last December a wonderful well was brought in on the Emory ranch, showing that the fields extend further west than the pioneer oil men had any idea was the case. This well is owned by the Standard. It is the greatest well known to the oil industry.

Around Buena Park are many pretty drives. Perhaps the tree most commonly seen along the highways is the eucalyptus. The climate is excellent, as it is all over the county, and the community is known all over the county as prosperous and growing.

The entire northwest part of the county is dotted with pumping plants, and they will increase in number as the county develops, which it is doing at a rapid rate.

Buena Park has three live, up-to-date mercantile stores, a drug store, confectionery, garage, blacksmith shop and a weekly newspaper that would be a credit to any town.

Good Boosters
The Chamber of Commerce Committee composed of the following members, L. J. Robeson, Mrs. George Durgan, Mrs. Hattie Allen, H. Hartman and P. J. Haas are to be commended for the many works of improvement during the past few months, and the industrious campaign of advertising they have waged.

Mrs. Allen has just returned from a tour of a number of eastern states, and says that in every locality she encountered a lively interest in California and in this section in particular.

Construction on a mile or more of paved street is to begin in the near future. Concrete sidewalks have been constructed, also a drainage system. A lighting system and a bank are next in line of progress.

The prospects of Buena Park's future are very bright indeed, either in the case of the successful outcome of new oil wells being bored in the immediate vicinity, or the subdivision of the large ranches around which would bring hundreds of families into this section.

ARE TO DRILL FOR OIL IN NEW SECTION

Placencia Courier: The Key-stone Oil Company has secured a lease on the Oliver ranch, about half a mile north of Richfield, and is preparing to sink a test well for oil at once. Construction work has already begun on a bunk house and lumber will be on the ground for a rig about November 1.

The company is composed of Whittier and eastern capitalists. This means the trying out of still another section of the Placencia oil fields and one that is a big jump south from any of the present rigs now at work in the field. That this whole district is underlain with oil is the opinion of many.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR ADDITION TO CITY WATER WORKS

Plans for the building to be added to those of the city water works have been completed by Architects Elwing and Tedford. The building is to be 88 by 96 feet in size and will be used to house an engine, boiler and other machinery. Brick, plaster and ornamental tiling enter into the structural plans. The plans call for some alterations of the old building. When completed both the new and old structures will be in harmony and will prove splendid additions to the municipal water plant.

ORANGE CARPENTER BUILDING AT ORANGE IS SOLD

Orange News: The Carpenter building on East Chapman avenue was sold in the superior court of Los Angeles county this afternoon to C. J. Overshiner of Orange and R. E. Whitted of Santa Ana. The purchase price was $25,300.

The building is one of the large business blocks of this city and is at present occupied by the Shadel furniture store, the Carriker millinery, the Porter barber shop and the Spray book store, on the ground floor, while the second story is occupied by a number of offices.

The building was owned by the heirs of the Carpenter estate, which is being distributed by the Los Angeles probate court. The building had been advertised for sale by the administrator of the estate.

EIGHTY-ACRE RANCH SOLD TO VENTURIAN

Huntington Beach News: The biggest land deal made in this section for several months is the sale of an 80-acre bean and celery ranch, across the road from the Springdale schoolhouse, recently by the firm of O'Connell-Sundby Company. The deal was closed Saturday. The property was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moore of Orange and passed to E. Kettler, a former Oxnard bean grower.

While the consideration is not made public, it is understood to be around the $40,000 mark, as that is the price the ranch has been on the market for. This is the third member of the Kettler family to buy bean land in this vicinity.

GARDEN GROVE A GOOD NAME

It is a Place of Gardens and Groves, and More of Each Coming

GARDEN GROVE, Oct. 31.—Gardens and groves, flowers, fields and fruit, poultry, peppers, pigs, potatoes and pumpkins, beets, beans, butter, barley and berries, corn, cucumbers, climate, and water—one might go on always alliteratively telling truths in delightful description of that section of Orange county known as Garden Grove. Whoever named that locality must have had an insight into the future, for gardens and groves abound and unmistakably characterize that whole section.

Seven years ago Garden Grove was a cross-roads store and post office. It is different now. Practically every ordinary store and shop generally found in a small city is numbered among Garden Grove's business houses. The community has a fine school house with eight teachers, four churches, a Y. M. C. A. building, electric lights, a good domestic water system, telephones, gas, and a population of perhaps 350.

JEROME HAD BIG VOTE IN PLACES WHERE HE LIVED

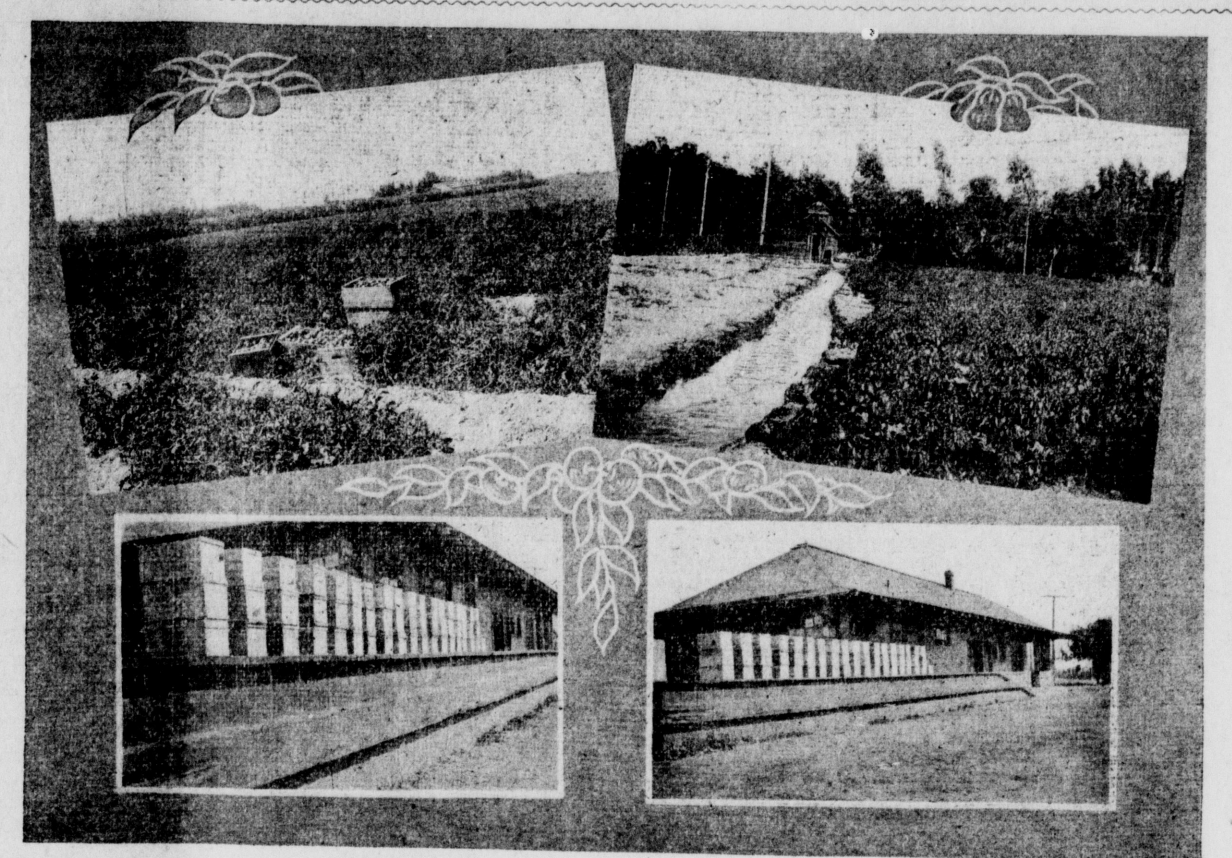

To the Voters:—Among the offices upon which you are to vote next Tuesday is that of county auditor, and since I am a candidate for that office, I desire to remind you of that fact. I went before the people inviting all of those who did not know me to make inquiry concerning me in any of the places where I have lived, Tustin, San Joaquin, El Toro or Santa Ana. Where I live and have lived and lived best known I received large pluralities. In San Joaquin precinct, where I lived many years, the vote was six to one in my favor against my leading opponent in the primaries.

In fairness to myself I mention this. I feel that most of those people know me personally and that they would not have voted for me so strongly had they not known that I will give satisfaction as a public official.

To those who gave me their support and vote at the primaries and I know of none who have failed to continue their support—I wish again to extend my sincere thanks. To all those who will vote for me on Nov. 3, let me say that I shall appreciate those votes greatly.

Yours sincerely,
WM. C. JEROME.

PROGRESSIVE CANDIDATE FOR ASSEMBLY MAKING A VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN

Hans V. Weisel, Progressive nominee for assemblyman is making a vigorous campaign, and feels confident of election. He is running on his record as a Progressive legislator, who supported the Johnson administration heartily in all its humanitarian and reformatory legislation, and expects and deserves the support of all Progressives and of progressive voters generally.

Mr. Weisel is also deserving of support on his personal merits as a clean, able, laudably ambitious young man, whose ideas and ideals are right.

SPURGEON BLOCK STORE ROOMS ALL TO BE READY BY NOV. 15; MANY FIRMS ALREADY LOCATED

Progress on the new Spurgeon building indicates that practically every store room and office in this newest and largest Santa Ana business block will be occupied by November 15. A large number of firms have already taken possession of their leases and those that have not yet moved in expect to make the transfer by November 15.

The large store room on the corner of Fourth and Spurgeon streets, to be occupied by the White Cross Drug Store, will take a longer time to complete than any of the others. However, all is going ahead rapidly and smoothly and Ernest Madden, proprietor of the White Cross, is confident that he will be settled in his new location November 15.

The room immediately south of that to be occupied by the White Cross store will be ready about November 10, as far as can at present be determined by R. C. Peterson, proprietor of Peterson's Sample Shoe Store, who will remove to the new rooms as soon as it is completed.

J. E. Tillotson completed moving into the room at 212 West Fourth street, the third room west of the lobby in the Spurgeon building, Tuesday evening. The store is ready to receive customers. The store contains one of the most attractive lines of men's clothing and furnishings goods in the city. It will be a day or so before the stock is finally arranged.

The Sam Stein stationery store has been in its new location, 210 West Fourth, for about eight weeks, although it was not until about a week ago that the work of installing some of the fixtures was entirely completed.

Hill & Blauer, the grocers, opened their new store, immediately west of the Spurgeon building lobby, this morning. The stock is nicely arranged and throughout the store is one of the most attractive in the city. This evening a demonstration of H. Jevne & Company's Blend coffee and 10 different kinds of bread made by this firm will be given. A demonstration of Stetson-Barrett Company's "Red Hussar" brand of canned fruits and vegetables will also be made. Each lady visiting Hill & Blauer's new store this afternoon and evening, will be presented with a sample box of Winfield chocolates.

Hill & Walker, the well known sporting goods dealers, will open their new store, immediately east of the lobby, about a week from Monday. This firm has completed plans for installing one of the most up-to-date and most attractively displayed stocks of bicycles and athletic goods between Los Angeles and San Diego. The firm will begin moving Friday evening and expects to be ready to receive its customers early Monday morning.

Hayson, the tailor, opened his new store, the second east of the lobby, a week ago today, with a complete line

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET
The market on walnuts has been showing a weakness through the week. Dealers through the east have not been taking the full amount of the stock which they asked for prior to naming of this year's prices, and as far as possible are hedging and buying just sufficient to supply the demand. The result has been slower movement than anticipated. So far no actual reductions have been made here.

Almonds are plentiful. The Southern California district is beginning to prove a factor in the market, and many almonds selling here are from Antelope Valley, the Banning, Beaumont and other nearby districts. In another year of the two crop is expected to be of sufficient size to make unnecessary any shipments from the northern part of the state.

Remember Voters, For the Good of This County and State, Vote No on No. 3, the Eight-Hour Law

Why You Should Vote Yes on the Water Commission Law; It Is Number Six on the Ballot

(President of the Riverside Water Co., President Tri-Counties Reforestation Association, Member of the State Conservation Commission.)

BY FRANCIS CUTTLE

Because this law is the result of years of careful collecting of data under the authority of the state legislature.

Because it contains all of the best legislation on determining of water rights now in use by other states, notably Wyoming, Nebraska, and Oregon, where thousands of water rights have been ascertained at an average cost of about $10 per claimant, and better than all, definitely and permanently settling all water litigation.

Because this is an administrative measure, having the endorsement of Governor Johnson, Francis J. Heney, John Eshleman, Dr. George C. Pardee, and other advocates of beneficial legislation such as has been passed during the present administration. This law follows very closely the procedure now so effectively in force by the Railroad Commission. If supported by the people of California, it will simplify the method of acquiring the right to use the water of the streams of California, in that it will make it comparatively easy for legitimate developers to secure licenses for the use of these waters, while it will make it impossible for speculators to file upon and hold water without putting it to beneficial use.

This law is endorsed by Samuel C. Weil (author of Weil on Water Law) in a paper read before the law students of the University of California, January 22nd, 1914. There is no better authority in the west on water legislation and litigation than Samuel C. Weil. His opinions and conclusions are widely quoted by the State.

(Authorized Political Publicity.)

VOTE NO ON NO. 46

1. Because it licenses as "doctors" without adequate education or hospital experience, persons whom the State Law does not admit to practice.
2. Because persons so licensed will not confine themselves to drugless methods, but can, without previous training or education, practice surgery or midwifery.
3. Because there will be no means of indicating that such "doctors" are not fully qualified physicians, surgeons or obstetricians.
4. Because any "natural healer" of sufficient education and good moral character can obtain a license under the present law.
5. Because under No. 46, any and every kind of "healer" now in practice will be licensed as a "doctor" without examination.
6. Because treatment by prayer or mental healing, which has not been included in No. 46, has been provided for (Sec. 22) in the present medical law.
7. Look into this question carefully and ask your friends to do so.

and Mr. Glenn D. Smith of Ontario, is secretary. In answer to a communication addressed to Mr. Smith by the writer as to certain statements contained in that pamphlet, Mr. Smith says under date of October 15th: "I also have a copy of the pamphlet to which you refer, issued by the California Water Association which I have read with much interest. This pamphlet was prepared, I believe, under the direction of Mr. George O. Perry, who, no doubt, can furnish you the information regarding the statements in the pamphlet in which you seem to be interested."

Is not that an amazing statement for a man to make whose name is attached to a pamphlet which contains many false, misleading and vicious statements concerning a measure now up for endorsement by the people?

Mr. Perry in a communication to the writer vehemently denies that he was employed by water power companies, and yet a later inquiry as to whether or not he is being paid for his services in opposition to the Water Commission Law remains unanswered, from which I think I may fairly infer that Mr. Perry is nothing more nor less than a paid attorney opposing the Water Commission Law, having as a blind the "California Water Association" which is undoubtedly composed of a few wire-pullers (neither Mr. Perry nor Mr. Glenn D. Smith will answer the question as to how many bona fide members there are in the California Water Association) instead of water users who are desirous of protecting their own rights.

During the time that this bill was before the legislature a most active lobby was maintained against it at a cost, I am advised on good authority, of not less than $20,000 and after the law was enacted by the legislature, and signed by the governor, a referendum petition has been circulated in the state, that must have cost at least $5000 more.

Is it reasonable to believe that this substantial amount of money was expended by philanthropists in the interests of the small user of water or owner of small water rights, or is it not much more likely that this money has been expended to defeat a beneficial law by people who expect to monopolize the water of the streams of California if the law is defeated?

EAST NEWPORT, Oct. 31—Mrs. E. Nelson is entertaining tonight in honor of the eleventh birthday of her son, Elmer Jordan Nelson, at her home on Second street. The guests were bidden to come at 5 o'clock, when an elaborate dinner was served to them. After dinner, Halloween sports were indulged in, and after that Master Elmer invited the party to the moving picture theater at Balboa. Those invited to the party were Penya Sherman, Van Court Castleman, Oscar Collins, Murray McCrany, Harold King, Harold Knight, Bert Jumper, Max and Albert Goettinger, Royal Jumper and George Pollard.

The benefit fund of the Ebell Club house received a substantial boost Friday night as the result of a Halloween celebration. The entertainment took the form of a sheet and pillow case party, and the guests appeared in ghostly array. Bobbing for apples, pie contests and other sports of Halloween time were enjoyed, and the later part of the evening was devoted to dancing.

A Weak, Nervous Sufferer

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Kasota, Minn.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than anything else, and I had the best physician here. I was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work and suffered with pains low down in my right side for a year or more. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I feel like a different person. I believe there is nothing like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weak women and young girls, and I would be glad if I could influence anyone to try the medicine, for I know it will do all and much more than it is claimed to do."—Mrs. CLARA FRANKS, R. F. D. No. 1, Maplecrest Farm, Kasota, Minn.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

MOVING PICTURES OF WILD LIFE SPLENDID

Last night at the Grand Opera House were given the Salisbury moving pictures of wild fish and game life. These pictures proved to be of great interest, an education along natural history lines. The life story of the trout as told on the screen is little short of wonderful. One might read about the propagation of the fish and never understand it, but the pictures leave no questions to be asked.

Possibly the most unique pictures of all is the feeding of its young by a pelican. The wobbly youngster sticks his head down his mother's throat to get food.

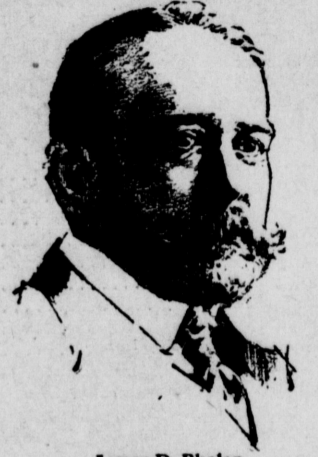

Before the pictures were shown last night W. L. Grubb, president of the Orange County Fish and Game Protective Association, gave a short talk in which he emphasized the necessity of taking steps to protect wild life, else it will become extinct. He said that he well remembered the great flights of passenger pigeons. Now there is not a single bird of that kind left. The same thing is happening to the buffalo, elk and grizzly bear.

The purpose of the films as put forth by the California Fish and Game Commission is to awaken interest in wild life, and among those who saw the splendid pictures shown last night, that interest was certainly augmented. The pictures are to be shown again tonight.
